Dear Sir/ Madam,

We are delighted to inform you about the start of the Global Open Government Partnership (OGP) process as one of the platforms of the international/ regional system for open governments. As you would know, this platform highlights the good practices and successful initiatives, and simultaneously addresses the challenges and enables sharing experiences with our strategic partners.

Regarding the above, in the framework of the global obligations and commitments that our country has in the role of political overseer of this process, we ask for your maximum commitment to proceed with priority for the drafting of the Action Plan for Open Partnership and Governance (OGP) 2020-2022. We elicit your cooperation in accordance with the methodological package, the work schedule in compliance with the deadlines, the principles of inclusiveness, transparency, as well as the involvement of civil society for the drafting of relevant components of the consolidated national plan.

Thanking you for your cooperation,

DEPUTY PRIME MINISTER

ERION BRAÇE
